

Health and Social Development Foundation

The BORDERNETwork project and The Health and Social Development Foundation, Sofia

organised

A 2-days exchange seminar on Participatory Community Involvement in HIV Prevention

With focus on participatory methods and practices in needs assessment and effective interventions in ethnic minority and migrant communities with regards to HIV/STI prevention.

When: 18 – 20 October 2010

Where: Sofia, Bulgaria
Social and Health Community Centre in the Roma Community Fakulteta

Who: 15 HIV/STI prevention experts and organisations with experience in ethnic minority and migrant communities, representatives of 5 associated partners, 2 collaborating partners, 2 ENP countries' experts and the main partner SPI Forschung GMBH.

BORDERNETwork is a EU funded (Public Health Programme) networking project with 13 participating organisations from 8 EU countries, and above 20 collaborating partners, 4 of them from CEE and SEE countries.

Participating countries:

Austria, Bosnia&
Herzegovina, Bulgaria,
Estonia, Germany, Latvia,
Serbia, Slovakia, Romania

The cooperation area of revention (WP8) aims to: improve HIV/STIs prevention and sexual health for ethnic minorities (e.g. ROMA) and migrant groups through capacity building in participatory prevention models.

This seminar arises from the project BORDERNETwork which has received funding from the European Union, in the framework of the Health Programme.

The sole responsibility of any use that may be made of the information lies with the author (HESED)

This seminar arises from the project BORDERNETwork which has received funding from the European Union, in the framework of the Health Programme.

The sole responsibility of any use that may be made of the information lies with the author (HESED)