

First Cross-Border Exchange Meeting

Venue: Aids Hilfe Wien, Mariahilfergürtel 4, 1060 Wien

Vienna, Austria

Time: 6th May 2011: 13.00 - 18.00 followed by social program

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 13.00 | Welcome |
| 13.15 - 13.45 | First Results of the Sentinel Surveillance within the BORDERNETwork Project
Dr. Matthias Nachtnebel & Dr. Karin Haar, Robert Koch-Institut, Berlin, Germany |
| 13.45 - 14.00 | Discussion |
| 14.00 - 14.30 | HIV and Hepatitis B and C - Coinfections - Diagnostic Standards and Treatment Options in various European Countries
Dr. Wolfgang Güthoff, Ernst von Bergmann Klinikum, Potsdam, Germany |
| 14.30 - 14.45 | Discussion |
| 14.45 - 15.15 | Gonococcal diagnostics: Culture or NAT?
Prof. Dr. Angelika Stary, Pilzambulatorien, Wien |
| 15.15 - 15.30 | Discussion |
| 15.30 - 16.00 | Coffee break |
| 16.00 - 17.00 | Is the result worth the effort? Benefits and Goals of Sentinel Surveillance Studies
Dr. Karin Haar, Robert Koch-Institut, Berlin, Germany
Opportunity for participants to discuss the advantages and challenges of the Sentinel Study and raise issues that should be addressed at stakeholder level (planned meeting with the Ministries of Health to recommend strategies based on BORDERNETwork data) |
| 17.00 - 18.00 | STI services for special groups: A discussion on cross-border activities in STI-prevention, diagnosis and therapy
Dr. Danica Stanekova
Bratislava and Vienna are in a constant exchange of people with high risk behavior. How can STI centres in both countries cooperate to reach at-risk populations? |
| 18.00 | End of scientific program |
| 19.00 | Dinner |